Chief's Report:

Chief Burson reported the 2017 Yard Sale went very well. Chief Burson gave credit to Mayor Carter for stepping up with the additional signs and communication. The event ran like a well-oiled machine. Chief Burson was pleased how all of the officers handled everything while being one man short. The Auxiliary officers Searle and Deal were of great assistance. There was a minor hit skip accident that is under investigation. A fraudulent trading card transaction that was resolved. And one missing child returned. Less than 10 parking tickets were given. A few disturbance calls after the sale hours. The homeowner's own signs were a distraction in the tree lawns. The Boy Scouts and Marching Band did a great job with the parking. One person complained about having to pay to park in the Public Parking lots. The citizen was reminded they were asking for donations and not required.

Chief Burson will look into the limitations of towing vehicles on private property.

Chief Burson complimented the Police Department on their participation in the Memorial Day Parade.

Chief Burson complimented the Police Department on their dedication and hard work for the Staff Sgt. Ivan Reed funeral. Officer Houck orchestrated the guard and they all practiced on their own time.
