AMENDMENTS TO AGENDA: None

PRIVILEGE OF THE FLOOR: None

POLICE CHIEF'S REPORT: Sergeant Taylor Deal attended and gave the report for the month regarding department information such as training and statistic information regarding activity that the department responded to. The department new radios were programmed and delivered.

Sergeant Deal discussed the National Night Out Event he has organized for Seville. It will be August 6, 2024. See the attached flyer.

Mrs. Rhoads made a motion to allow the Seville Police Department to use Police donation fund to fund National Night Out. It was seconded and carried. The motion passed.

PENDING/COMPLETED LEGISLATION: None

NEW BUSINESS:

- Drug Abuse Policy

This was discussed during the BOPA meeting. Mrs. Rhoads would like input from the Police Department and Committee Members and add it to the Government Agenda to discuss further.

- The Well Café

Mrs. Miller mentioned the owner commented how nice it was to work with the Police Department and thanked them for their recent catering order for a training.

OLD BUSINESS:

- Body Camera Discussion

Chief Burson gave a breakdown of a quote he received. They will receive other quotes. He is adding to his budget for the future. The quote that he has received does not include redaction software, hiring somebody to do the redaction or installation fee. Mr. Sturgeon stated there is a lot involved and it should be the decision of the Police Department and would be beneficial if they move forward to discuss a roll out plan.

PRIVILEGE OF THE FLOOR: Chief Burson gave a special mention to Sergeant Deal on his diligent work on the Weaver Storage theft case that he has been working on since the fall. He has put a lot of work into this case and it has been resolved without going to trial.
